

Anti-Slavery Office,
New York, 10 Jan., 1862.

Dear May,

One of the Bingle subscribers here at the time of the transfer was Ezra Boston, Fedrow, Fulton Co., Ohio. He did not renew at the end of his Bingle subscription.

How about the Festival at Boston? O, I see the time announced in the Liberator. It might also to have been sent to the Standard. If you think it right, and wish to do so, you may put my hundred dollar subscription into your list of receipts on that occasion. I shall pay it by receipting for the amount (the sum is now due <sup>my</sup> on the books of the Society here.

I would like much to be in Boston, <sup>at</sup> ~~to~~ the time of the Festival and An'l Meeting, but it is very difficult, always impossible, to leave my work in these times, when the Kalendar scope is turned every day or often-

By the way, we shall be asked, soon after the first proximo, whether or no we will take our present quarters for another year from the first of May next. Such is the New York custom. I suppose the Committee will say, engage the room, though they know that we may possibly not want it. The rent may perhaps be reduced, but that is not certain, as Bowen of the Independent would like to have us vacate, that he may get the room.

I hope the Committee will not yet prepare to strike our flag.

Yours, truly,

W. Johnson,
